Artist's Sketch of Highlands Swim Club. Located in the Potomac Hill's Section of McLean, the Club is under construction and will be opened on Memorial Day.

A COMMUNITY DREAM COMES TRUE

In just six weeks, on Memorial Day to be exact, a long-time dream turns into reality when one of the most unusual community swimming clubs in the Nation will be completed and opened to the residents of McLean and surrounding areas.

Located on 9 1/2 acres of rolling hillside in a heavily wooded glen in Potomac Hills, the Highlands Swim Club will have two round swimming pools, a "tiny-tots" pool, deluxe bath house, and spacious patio, picnic, and parking facilities. The swimming pools (equivalent in total surface area to three standard 50 X 82.5 pools) will accommodate virtually every kind of water activity, with three regulation diving boards, twelve Olympic-size racing lanes, two gigantic sliding boards, and ample deep water and shallow water areas. The bath house will feature individual tile showers, the most modern interior lighting, and mirrored dressing vanities for the ladies.

Completion of the Club represents the culmination of almost 3 years of effort by a group of civic-minded citizens intent on improving recreational facilities in the community. Through the splendid cooperation of Fairfax County officials and round-the-clock efforts of a Board of Directors of local residents, the Club was able to buy the land from the County and obtain a use permit. The Club is strictly a community, non-profit effort and has no connection with any other private or public Club.

The need for a local neighborhood Swimming Club was amply proven in two previous membership solicitations. In the first of these, held long before the land was purchased, 200 members signed up over a single week-end. With such strong encouragement, plans were rushed to buy the land and begin engineering studies. A second membership invitation brought in another 100 members. Since then, new members have been steadily added.

The final general invitation is being offered on the week-end of April 23-24 for the remaining memberships. After these have been applied for, future prospective members will be required to place their names on a waiting list. In the McLean area, these waiting lists are becoming longer every Summer.

The facilities are in the final stages of construction and the target date for the grand opening is Memorial Day. The membership fee remains, for the time being, at $500.00 and is refundable on request, under conditions set forth in the by-laws of the Club. All membership applications are subject to approval of the Board of Directors. In the event of over-subscription, date and hour of application will determine the order of priority.

McLEAN BUSINESSMAN

Mort Kaplan, owner of Mort's Bootery, traveled a long and devious route to McLean from his birthplace in Baltimore's Sinai Hospital, but he is here to stay. One of six children, Mort began selling shoes at the age of 16 while he was still in high school. His early training was given to him by his brother who was operating a shoe store in Washington. After high school, Mort began selling shoes in a Baltimore women's specialty shop, but not for long. World War II began, and Mort enlisted in the infantry. For the next four years, Private (eventually T/Sgt.) Kaplan served overseas in five major campaigns, emerging from the Army wearing the Bronze Star.

In 1948, Mort opened his first store in Buckingham, which, at that time, was way out in the country. Ten successful years later, he closed the store and opened his present Fairfax store at 10350 Lee Highway in the Fairfax Shopping Center. Mort moved to a new frontier in 1959 when he came to McLean in the new Salona Shopping Center. There he has been for the past seven years and there he intends to stay, offering his customers an extensive line of nationally advertised brands of footwear.

Both of Mort's stores were remodelled last year and he is understandably proud of their thick carpeting and soft, appealing color schemes.

Mort lives in Arlington with his wife and 18 year old son, David, a student at Yorktown High.

THE ANNUAL McLEAN HOUSE AND GARDEN TOUR sponsored by the Mothers' Club of the McLean Boys' Club, the Women's Club of McLean and six McLean Garden Clubs, will be held on Thursday, May 12, from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. Tickets may be purchased by mail from Mrs. Fred Sobotka, P. O. Box 155, McLean, Va. prior to May 1 for $3.00 each.

President George H. Wilson receives charter from District Governor Peter A. Wallenboro as Mr. Roger B. Sprigg, Past District Governor and Mrs. Daniel Nastoff, Lady of the Governors Special Representative, look on.

McLean's Newest

A new service club came to McLean officially on the night of March 22 when the McLean Rotary Club received its charter. The presentation, made by District Governor Peter A. Wallenborn, culminated many months of effort spent in forming the club by President George H. Wilson and other charter members under the guidance of the Falls Church club.

The weather conspired with Mr. Bayard Evans, the congenial Keeper of the Inn, to set an idyllic background for the Rotary members and their many guests. The cocktail hour was made unique by the introduction of the Madrigal singers. Their director, Don Haines Guidotti, pointed out that the group had performed in many seemingly incongruous circumstances and still managed to stop the show. So they did again that night.

Dinner was served in the lush Garden Room of the Evans Farm Inn. Following a roll call of the many visiting clubs, the actual presentation of the charter was made.

The address for the evening was made by The Honorable Calvin D. Johnson, former U. S. Congressman and six-time delegate to the General Assembly of Illinois. The theme of his address was, "Give of your time and talents so that in twenty years, your children will be proud of the community you have built for them". The new Rotarians have taken that theme seriously, as indicated by their program.

Their first major undertaking is to attempt to establish a playground for retarded children. The project will be undertaken with the co-operation of the Fairfax County Recreation Department. As of this moment, another project is underway which is designed to assist the McLean Postmaster, Mr. H. C. Franklin, to render more efficient services to the community.

Rotary's membership plan is to make the club a true cross-section of the community's interest and activities. Here they have outdone themselves. The occupations and interests of the twenty-two charter members include almost all of the community's endeavors.

"Service Above Self" is the slogan of the Rotarians and it is interesting to note that their membership reads like a glossary of local businessmen who are spending their working days in the service of the community. These are the people with whom you come in contact in your daily shopping for goods and services. In their off hours, they continue to work for a better McLean—to make the community a better place in which to live.

Forensics is one aspect of school sponsored activity that is often forgotten in the scramble involved in sports, dramatics, and school politics.

The forensic program consists of seven categories: Girls' Prose Reading, Boys' Prose Reading, Girls' Poetry Reading, Boys' Poetry Reading, Girls' Public Speaking, Boys' Public Speaking, and Spelling. Each high school selects a winner in each field from among the class winners. The school winners represent the school at the district meet.

In previous years, all schools from Fairfax and Arlington Counties met in one competition, with one winner in each area selected to represent Northern Virginia. This year, however, district forensic competition was divided into three districts, similar to those used in sports competition.

The Potomac District Meet, held April 2 at Marshall, involved winners from McLean, Langley, Marshall, Stuart, W-L, Wakefield, and Yorktown high schools. Three of the seven district champions were from Wakefield High School; the other four from Langley and McLean. Libby Cain of McLean won Spelling, John Berrini, from Langley, won Boys' Public Speaking, Jodie Johnson, from Langley, won Girls' Public Speaking, and Mike Murphy, also from Langley, won Boys' Poetry Reading.

These finalists will attend the State Forensic Meet in Charlottesville, April 23.

YOU NAME IT — WE HAVE IT

The name has changed — and so has the face behind the counter at the McLean Rent-All Store. Mr. Paul Bassette of Manassas is the new owner. He won't be new to the business very long, however, as his right-hand man, Phillip Michelitch, has been there for six years, ever since it opened back in 1960, and is acquainting Mr. Bassette with who's who and what's what in McLean.

Mr. Bassette was a chemist with the Arthur H. Thomas Co. in Philadelphia, representing the company for the Washington, Virginia and North Carolina areas. He is a native of Cheverly, Md. and graduated from the University of Maryland. His family consists of a wife and three month old baby daughter.

Mr. Bassette was formerly the President and a charter member of the Springfield Lions Club ten years ago and is now a member at large.

How does a chemist get into the Rent-All business? Mr. Bassette has always enjoyed working with tools and has quite a large collection himself. He wants to stress the renting of tools more at the McLean Rent-All. As he says in his ad on page 10, "WHY BUY? YOU NAME IT — WE HAVE IT"

In this column last month we attempted to name all of the husband-wife teams who work together in McLean businesses and we asked for any names that we missed. We not only missed a few names — we missed a whole shopping center! And some of the oldest businesses in McLean are represented. Mr. and Mrs. Cline Mutersbaugh are of course well-known as the owners of the McLean Sport and Hobby and the new McLean Art Store in the Salona Shopping Center. Mitch and Bobby Harrison run the Lazy H Saddlery, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mullins own the McLean Youngland & Variety and their son, Jimmy, also works there. At the McLean Jewelers, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mueller operate the store, Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Garay are at the optometrist shop there and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nader operate a dress shop. The Pet Shop is owned by Mrs. Lee Charters and her son. Now there's quite a group! Any more?

McLean Scouts Give Easter Play For Arlington Hospital Children

An Easter treat for children at Arlington Hospital was made possible recently when Girl Scouts from Troop 1613, McLean, presented "The Peppermint Easter Egg" as a special community service project. The humorous one-act play was directed, staged, and adapted for the 24 girls from Churchill Rd. School by Mrs. Florence Murray. Clever costuming and dialogue made the play very much a success when it was given for children and parents at school, and later at the hospital.

Those participating were Susan Andrews, Joanne Bass, Susan Blackburn, Philinda Bond, Nancy Curl, Linda Dorsey, Janet Edson, Alice Fuller, Janet Leisy, Robyn

Markel, Patti McCleary, and Caprice Murray. Others in the cast were Jeannette Smith, Leslie Kemp, Andrea Johnson, Sally Carter, Betsy Cross, Laurie Prothro, Cathy Sheridan, Patrice Slagle, Patty Smoot, Diane Sutter, Lois Van Valkenburg, and Kathy Wallace. Troop leaders are Mrs. Robert Leisy, Mrs. Norma Fuller, and Mrs. Everett Slagle.
